

Silicon Vertex Detector

- Trillions of proton - antiproton collisions were achieved inside this detector in 1992 - 1993.
- A dozen top quark candidates were observed. Each top quark decays in 10^{-24} seconds into a W particle and a b quark.
- Vertices that occurred 10^{-12} second after a collision indicated the presence of a b quark.